

Haileybury Turnford Awards Evening recognises high achieving students and teachers

A very successful Awards Evening celebrating outstanding achievement and contributions from both students and teachers was held at Haileybury Turnford on 13 March 2019.

Attended by students, friends, families, staff and teachers over 130 students received Subject and Year Achievement Coordinator Awards. A Principal's Award and an Outstanding Teacher and Outstanding Support Staff Award were also presented in recognition for contributions to the school community.

The Awards were presented by Rachel Macfarlane, Director of Education Services at Herts for Learning who said: "It was a pleasure to celebrate with students and their families at the Haileybury Turnford Awards Evening. The ethos of the school motto – Ambition, Pride, Success - is clearly being lived and shared by staff, students and parents. The high expectations, community spirit and celebration of achievement shone through."

The evening was hosted by Brendon Walsh, Assistant Principal, and opened by Year 9 and 10 Performing Arts students marking 70 years of the NHS. Performances were also given by Stephanie Pearce on guitar and Seval Basri singing.

Governors, staff, students, their friends and families were also joined by The Mayor of Broxbourne, Councillor Carol Crump and The Youth Mayor, Chris Bakalis.

Robin Newman, Principal said: "It is so important to celebrate the great achievements of our students, and to also recognise our staff who inspire them to achieve such success. Very well done to everyone involved."
