New Principal for Haileybury Turnford

The governors of Haileybury Turnford are pleased to announce that Robin Newman has been appointed Principal of the Haileybury-sponsored academy in Cheshunt from 1st September.

Mr Newman is currently Senior Deputy Head teacher at Notley High School and Braintree Sixth Form, a large coeducational academy in Essex. Educated at Bristol, Cambridge and London universities, Mr Newman taught geography and was Head of Year at Saffron Walden County High School before becoming Deputy Head teacher and Head of Sixth Form at King Edward VI Grammar School, Chelmsford.

Robin Newman is a governor of a primary school in Bishop's Stortford, where he lives, and has published articles in educational journals. He is a keen runner and has climbed Mount Kilimanjaro in Tanzania, raising funds for charity.

'I am delighted that Robin Newman is joining the academy at this important time in the school's history,' said Russell Matcham, Chairman of Haileybury Turnford's governing body. 'There are ambitious plans for the school's development and I am confident Robin Newman will lead Haileybury Turnford to a period of sustained success and growth at this exciting time for the school,' he added.
