10th July 2019

Dear Parent/Carer

RE: Enrichment Week 15th – 19th July

Following on from my initial letter outlining enrichment week, I am now able to confirm a few more specifics for the week.

As mentioned previously, each year group is doing a different activity each day. The table below identifies what your son / daughter is doing each day for Year 10.

YEAR 10
Monday 15 th July
Activity	Careers Day
Details	5 x 1 hours sessions focusing on careers activities following their work shadowing week.
Uniform	Students are to arrive in full school uniform at the normal time.
Tuesday 16 th July
Activity	Business Careers and Enterprise
Details	Students will take part in a Business Careers Activity as well as preparing “pitch” to their group in order to sell a new type of product.
Uniform	Students are allowed to wear non-uniform – however it must be appropriate as per previous non-uniform days
Wednesday 17 th July
Activity	Lee Valley
Details	Explore the characteristics of our local area. A packed lunch will be needed, unless your child has free school meals.
Uniform	Non – uniform appropriate to represent the school, suitable for the weather (to be outside all day) with suitable walking shoes.
Additional	There is also a small group of students from Year 10 attending a reward trip that is being subsidised by the school to Adventure Island – see separate letter for details.
Thursday 18 th July
Activity	Sports Day
Details	The day is split into two – the morning will see students on a carousel of activities competing for their House. In the afternoon, more traditional athletic races will take place.
Uniform	Students are to wear their PE kit. They may wish to wear an appropriate coloured top of their House.
Friday 19 th July
Activity	Sponsored Walk
Details	Our final charitable event of the year. Students will be completing laps of the school site to raise money for the National Brain Appeal. Those who wish to can sign up to being an elite runner and complete as many laps as possible.
