A MESSAGE FROM MISS ALLINGHAM

Hi Year 7!

How are you all? I hope you are all making time to do something you enjoy each day.

I have been loving seeing all your projects come in so keep up the good work and remember to keep sending them to me for the newsletter!

Take care and stay safe!

A message from Miss Carter:

Hi everyone,

I hope you are taking care of yourselves and are enjoying spending time with your families.

Remember to call or text your friends and any family that you do not live with, knowing that you are there can make all the difference to them. Ensure that you talk about any worries that you have and help to support each other.

I am still here for you should you need a chat, a quick catch up or help with anything else, it really would be lovely to hear from you. Please do email me at CarterV@haileyburyturnford.com.

We know being at home is tough on everyone, be proud of yourselves, your resilience and your ability to adapt to extreme circumstances. Ensure that you do some things that you enjoy, do some exercise regularly and maintain a good sleep pattern.

Hopefully we will see you soon so as we are able to pick up where we left off. I am missing you all!

Miss. Carter.

A message from Mr Walsh:

It is certainly no lie that I miss every single one of you. I am currently in school and this morning I had to go out to the front gate to pretend I was greeting you all, as I have done each and every morning since you joined us. I stood there and told myself that things would return to normal one day. In years to come we will talk of this moment in history where we learnt a lot about ourselves, our family, our country and community as well as the things we should value the most. I have learnt that I value the human interaction above all else, we are greater together than we can ever be alone and when we meet again we will continue the great journey we started. Someone once said that "now is not the end. It is not even the beginning of the end, but it is perhaps the end of the beginning". I'll be there on the gate when you return for our new beginning. Reach out if you need support. Our team is here for you. Mr Walsh

LA TOMATINA

What is this festival held?
La Tomatina is a festival that is held in the Valencia town of Buñol, in the east of Spain.

What happens during this festival?
In this festival people get invited in a tomato fight and start throwing tomatoes at each other.

What is the history behind this?
In 1945 some boys decided to take part in a parade with sausages, cheese and big heads. They carried this on every year and made it like a tradition.

Why did it start?
The participants had to be of legal age, began hitting everything in his path, but not a tomato which was thrown to reason to stop the parade.

THE DAY OF THE DEAD

The day of the dead is a Mexican tradition celebrated throughout Mexico, in particular the central region, and by doing a Mexican culture experience. The multi-day festival involves family and friends gathering to pray for and remember those who have died and helping support their spiritual journey.

FOOD
The only special occasion in Mexico that places a water. The meals often include tamales and other pan de muerto, a delicious loaf of sweet bread, cooked in butter, cinnamon or vanilla, and a pig's ears.

FULL OF COLOUR
Day of the dead is a colorful festival. People use the Aztec, Aztec, Aztec.

Calavera means "Skull"
But during the late 18th and early 19th centuries, Calaveras were used to describe strange humorous poems. These funny calaveras eventually became popular.

Me and my family

Me and my family always go shopping for our grandparents and leave it at their doorstep.

We also bake cakes and cookies for our grandparents which is a nice surprise for them when they open the door.

People helping the elderly - People have been delivering prescriptions to the elderly because they can't get them.

What we are doing to help:

We have stayed inside and we are only going out for food shopping and our daily exercise. We also do our clapping for the NHS at 8:00PM every Thursday.

Tuesday 11th April 1700

Anna White was an ordinary woman like us until she was a student in Hogwarts. Her name was Granger and she was a very popular girl with her friends. Anna wanted to be the very popular girl with her friends. She then ran away with some very important things that belonged to Harry, Hermione, and a letter she had written. She was after she got to school, she was found murdered straight away. She returned as a ghost haunting people.
