Results and Appeals process

Centre Information

Results and Appeals

Centre assessment grades and rank orders

Haileybury Turnford:

- will not divulge provisional (centre assessment) grades, nor rank orders, with candidates or parents/carers before the issue of results
- understands that any inappropriate disclosure of centre assessment grades and rank order information before the issue of results will be investigated by awarding bodies as potential malpractice

Final grades

Haileybury Turnford will:

- issue results in accordance with this Information for Candidates – Results and Appeals document
- signpost candidates (and parents/carers) to information provided by key stakeholders at the time final grades are issued to support their understanding of the grades awarded

Arrangements for results days

Haileybury Turnford will:

- organise results days and inform candidates of the arrangements in place for the collection of/access to their results
- ensure senior members of centre staff are available/accessible to candidates with whom a result/results may be discussed
- prepare information for candidates showing their options if they have concerns about their results
- signpost candidates to relevant Ofqual and/or awarding body information that sets out how their grades were awarded this year and the options available if they believe their result was not properly produced, including access to appeal

Arrangements for appeals

Haileybury Turnford will:

- follow information provided by Ofqual/JCQ/awarding bodies to determine the grounds on which an appeal can be made on behalf of a candidate, or candidates
- make candidates aware of the arrangements in place for appeals
- if a candidate is concerned that any reasonable adjustments were not taken into account when the centre determined their CAG, discuss this with the candidate
- submit an appeal to the awarding body on behalf of a candidate or candidates where it is believed:
 - the centre itself made an error when submitting centre assessment grade (CAG) or rank order information to the awarding body. Rank order information was vital to support standardisation, but any change to a candidate's position in the rank order would not change the candidate's CAG.
 - the awarding body made an administrative error in the issuing of results
- collect consent from a candidate before any appeal is submitted to the awarding body.

Haileybury Turnford cannot appeal against the CAG that they decided was correct at the point of submitting it to the awarding body, and for which the head of centre submitted a declaration to confirm that in the centre's judgement this was the grade the students were most likely to have received had the exams gone ahead.

Haileybury Turnford confirms that

- the decision to issue candidates with the higher of their CAG or their calculated grades means that a route to appeal on the grounds of mock exam results is not available. Mock exam results were part of the evidence the centre took into account when determining CAGs for candidates.
- if candidates or others have concerns about bias, discrimination or any other factor that suggests that the centre did not behave with care or integrity when determining the CAG and/or rank order information they should normally raise these concerns with the centre, in the first instance; or they could take their concerns to the relevant awarding body if this was the more appropriate route
- where there is evidence, Ofqual require awarding bodies to investigate such allegations as potential malpractice or maladministration as such allegations would be very serious, and Ofqual expect them to be rare

Internal appeals procedure

Haileybury Turnford will provide a process for a candidate to appeal against any decision the centre may make:

- not to seek from the awarding body any information the awarding body holds that would be needed for an appeal; and/or
- not to appeal to the awarding body

How centre assessment grades and rank orders were determined

To respond to any queries, challenges or internal appeals from a candidate (or their parent/carer) Haileybury Turnford will provide records detailing:

- the process deployed for each subject in calculating centre assessment grades and ranking of all candidates within each grade (or within the cohort where this was required by a particular qualification type)
- the support given to any newly qualified teachers in grading and ranking students
- a summary of the evidence and data used to make objective and professional judgements
- the standardisation process where a cohort was taught across several teachers in a subject area
- how any conflicts of interest were managed
- the review and check for accuracy undertaken as part of the internal sign-off process for each subject
- confirmation of the process for head of centre sign-off and submission of the declaration to awarding bodies
- any errors reported by an awarding body after the submission of information and details of how these were resolved

Information for Candidates

Results and Appeals

Centre assessment grades and rank orders

Haileybury Turnford has submitted centre assessment grades (CAGs) and rank order information to the relevant awarding body in accordance with Ofqual guidance and in line with the awarding body instructions.

The awarding bodies put these grades through a standardisation process to determine a calculated grade.

Where calculated grades are higher than CAGs, calculated grades will be awarded.

Final grades

On candidate statements of results (results slips) and certificates, final grades will be reported in the same way as in previous years.

Final grades will be issued on results day(s) in August as follows:

Date	Qualification type
13/08/2020	GCE (AS, A Levels) and other Level 3 qualifications
20/08/2020	GCSE and other Level 1/2 qualifications

Arrangements for results day(s)

Results days have been organised to ensure that we can maintain social distancing in line with government guidance. Students will be receiving their results from 8.00am either via email, post or by coming into school, as arranged. The Sixth Form team, members of SLT and the Exams team will be there to support students.

About your results

Ofqual has provided information for students:

- Your results, what next? Understanding your qualifications grades this summer: updated 20 August 2020 www.gov.uk/guidance/your-results-what-next
- Student guide to post-16 qualification results: summer 2020 - A guide for those receiving qualification results in England this summer (updated 19 August)
- Student guide to appeals, malpractice & maladministration complaints Summer 2020 - What to do if you have concerns or questions about your grades (updated 19 August) www.gov.uk/government/publications/student-guide-to-post-16-qualification-results-summer-2020
- National Careers Service Exam Results Helpline www.gov.uk/careers-helpline-for-teenagers

Awarding bodies will also provide information for students about results. Haileybury Turnford will signpost you to any relevant information at results time.

If you have a concern about a grade you have been awarded, you can ask the Haileybury Turnford Exams team to:

- check whether an error was made when submitting your centre assessment grade and rank order to the awarding body

- raise a complaint with the head of centre if you feel you have evidence of bias or that you were discriminated against; you could also pass such evidence on to the awarding body who could investigate for potential maladministration/malpractice
- provide information about the opportunity to take an exam in the autumn series or in summer 2021

Arrangements for appeals

The arrangements for awarding qualifications in summer 2020 state:

Only schools and colleges can submit an appeal. This also applies to private candidates (students who do not study in a school or college.)

If a candidate has concerns about how grades were arrived at they should talk to their school or college about their options.

- A candidate can ask their centre to check whether it made a mistake when submitting data to the awarding body (If the centre finds it made a mistake in the data it provided it can ask the awarding body to correct it)
- The centre can appeal to the awarding body on a candidate's behalf if it believes the awarding body made a mistake when it communicated a candidate's grade
- A candidate cannot challenge the centre under the appeals process on the centre assessment grades it submitted or the rank order positions
- A candidate cannot appeal because their mock exam result was higher than the grade awarded. The mock grade will have been taken into account in deciding a candidate's centre assessment grade. Candidates will either receive their centre assessment grade or the calculated grade (whichever is higher)
- This summer, candidates grades are protected and will not go down as a result of an appeal.
- If the centre is unhappy with the outcome of the awarding body's appeals process, it can appeal this decision through Ofqual's Examination Procedures Review Service
- A candidate can appeal against their centre's decision
 - not to seek any information the awarding body holds that would be needed for an appeal; and/or
 - not to appeal to the awarding body

Internal appeals procedure

Haileybury Turnford will:

- inform candidates of the arrangements for appeals prior to the issue of results and the accessibility of senior members of centre staff immediately after the publication of results by issuing this Information for candidates – Results and Appeals document on the school website
- appeal to an awarding body on a candidate's behalf if it believes the centre itself made an error when submitting a centre assessment grade or rank order information or if it believes an awarding body made a mistake when communicating a grade
- ask the candidate to provide written informed consent (informed consent via candidate email is acceptable) before an appeal is submitted to the awarding body as the appeal could result in the final grade being lower than, higher than, or the same as the grade which was originally awarded
- only collect consent after the publication of results.
- where relevant, advise an affected candidate to inform any third party (such as a university or college) that an appeal has been submitted to an awarding body

Haileybury Turnford will not:

- seek any information the awarding body holds that would be needed for an appeal if it does not believe an awarding body made a mistake when communicating a grade
- appeal to an awarding body on a candidate's behalf if it does not believe the centre itself made an error when submitting a centre assessment grade or rank order information or if it does not believe an awarding body made a mistake when communicating a grade

An internal appeal can be submitted to the centre where a candidate (or his/her parent/carer) believes there are grounds to appeal against the centre's decision:

- not to seek any information the awarding body holds that would be needed for an appeal and/or
- not to appeal to the awarding body

An appeal should be submitted by

- completing and submitting an internal appeals form (appendix 1) by 7th September 2020 (10 calendar days prior to the deadline for submitting an appeal)

The appellant will be informed of the outcome of the appeal before the deadline for submitting an appeal.

If the internal appeal is upheld by the centre, resulting in an appeal on the candidate's behalf being submitted to the awarding body:

- awarding body fees which may be charged for an appeal will be paid by the centre
- if the appeal is upheld by the awarding body, this fee will be refunded by the awarding body and repaid to the appellant by the centre.
