National Award for Haileybury Turnford student

Haileybury Turnford Year 9 student, Havana Marshall, recently received a runner-up prize at the National Be Kind Awards. She was nominated for her significant contribution to the school and wider community during her time at Haileybury Turnford. Her specific care of others and drive to make the world a fairer and happier place was highly commended by the judging panel. Robin Newman, Principal, added “it is a wonderful achievement for Havana to be a runner-up in the Star Pupil category at this national ceremony, and for her kindness to others to be recognised following her nomination by the school.”

Havana said “listening to the stories and acts of kindness was heartwarming and it opened my eyes to the impact such acts of kindness can have on others.”
