

Haileybury Partnership

Haileybury Turnford

Haileybury is a leading independent school in Hertford Heath which began committing significant resources to supporting Haileybury Turnford in 2015.

It does this by providing:

- Sponsorship
- Teaching support
- University workshops
- Interview coaching
- Co-curricular opportunities
- Work experience.

About Haileybury

Founded in 1862, the School has educated the likes of former Prime Minister Clement Attlee, international rugby player Jamie George and film director Christopher Nolan.

The Haileybury Campus, located in 500 acres of woodland, includes five performance venues which are regularly used for events and award ceremonies. Sports facilities include 22 outdoor pitches, a swimming pool and fitness suite.

Haileybury pupils go on to study at some of the best universities in the UK and around the world.

“The interview for Oxford was really good and the practice I had at Haileybury was very beneficial. It got me used to speaking more and helped me open up. Meeting people who have actually been to Cambridge and Oxford helped too.”
