WORLD RELIGION DAY

What Religion Do You Practice/Follow?

My Religion is Christianity but to me, Its not just Christianity, that is just a Name, it doesn't signify Who I Am, because I am how God Made Me, and I Can Do all Things Through Christ Who Strengthens Me.

To be honest I don't really practice because I follow a relationship with God meaning he speaks to me through his words and through his songs and artists like Tasha Cobbs, Sinach, Kirk Franklin encouraging us to keep on going even when times are rough through his preaching's showing he is guiding and looking after me and leading me where to go because of my relationship with god through his love through the ups and downs and going through trials and tribulation with him making us stronger and better.

Is there anything you would like to share about your religion?
To be honest I don't know where to start.

CHRISTIANITY

What is the best thing about following your religion?

To be honest the best thing about following my religion is nothing because its everything to me, religion is just a name but the one above is God, he is the one I follow because God sent his only begotten son to die for our sins and he is the reason we are alive today and God created us all in his own image and special in our own way and different and God loves us each individually and he has put us on the earth with a purpose, to me I'm all about finding God and wanting to be where he is, as long as I am following the most high I am complete.

As Christians we are faced with a lot of restrictions, trials and tribulations but it is to show us how strong God truly made us and no matter what we go through to always put god first.

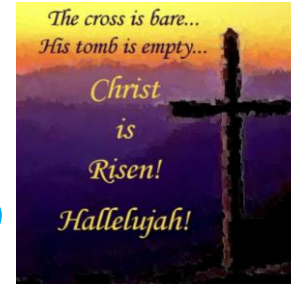

I love knowing about the pavilion which I learnt when I was young a circle with your family in it that god surrounds keeping us safe

1. I am a Christian, I believe in God and Jesus. I believe that by following Jesus I will live with God in heaven forever. The most important thing in my religion is to love others, respect them and help those in need.

CHRISTIAN

2. What I like most about my religion is that God is my father, loves me and forgives me. Jesus is my true friend who will always choose me and never leave me. My religion is a religion of peace, forgiveness, love for people and animals and helping.

3. Easter is a very important holiday in my family because it is the day of the Resurrection day when Jesus was raised from the grave and is alive. Maundy Thursday is the day of the last supper of Jesus Christ with his disciples during which Jesus gave them instructions and instituted the sacrament of the Eucharist. Good Friday- Despite its name is a day of sad reflection. On this day Jesus was crucified for the sins of the people. On this day we do not eat meat and watch a film about the life of Jesus and his resurrection. Holy Saturday - My family this day fills a basket with eggs, ham, bread, Easter cake, horseradish, salt. We bring the basket to the church to be blessed on Holy Saturday. Easter Sunday is a very joyful day! The day of Jesus' Resurrection. On this day, we share the blessed food, making wishes to each other. After breakfast, Easter egg hunting begins.

COMMUNITY AND PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT

1.) What religion do you practice/follow?

Fun fact I have two because my parents have different religions which are (my dad) Hindu and (my mum) Catholic. So, I have an option but I am more Hindu because I practice it a bit more unlike Christian/Catholic.

HINDU

2.) What is the best thing about following your religion?

The best thing is when it is Ganesh's birthday because you get to dance for hours, pray, eat, dress really colorful, put a statue of Ganesh in a water filled with flowers in and around the cube you also have to go around the parking spot about 5 times. They have to be 5 men staying at the temple for a whole night so the candles don't blow out, to make the cube and when they get half way they rotate (such as my uncle).

3.) Is there anything you would like to share about your religion? (perhaps if you wear special clothes, eat certain foods, have specific place of worship)

We wear a dress called a Sari, eat vegetable curry and the place of worship for us is called a Temple.
