WHAT IS ECONOMICS REALLY ABOUT?

Scarcity, Choice, Opportunity Cost in the Health Sector

These machines are used for patients who have kidneys that don't work properly – without dialysis the patients would quickly die. They are expensive – costing about $100,000.

Some patients can get a kidney transplant, which means they won't need dialysis any longer.

A hospital in a town has one dialysis machine that can run for 30 hours per week. As the boss of the hospital, you must decide who gets the treatment.

There are a number of patients who require treatment and their needs are given below.

Patient A: 6 year old child who needs 10 hours per week. They are awaiting a kidney transplant which is expected to occur in one year.

A dialysis machine.

Alternate scenario....

1. Same number of 'users' A-K.
2. Now they all want access to 30 hours of beauty treatments.
3. How would you allocate the 30 hours?

What is economics?

- Finite resources, unlimited wants. We want to consume as much as we can.
- People, governments, businesses all have to make choices about how to allocate resources.
- How do we allocate resources.....
- Through this....
