16th September 2025

Dear Parent/Carer

I would like to draw your attention to the planned Welcome and Key to Success Evening for Year 10 meeting on Thursday 25th September at 5.00pm at Haileybury Turnford.

The meeting will give parents and carers a chance to meet with key pastoral staff supporting your child this year. The meeting and presentation is intended to share information about how the school and pastoral team can work together alongside parents and carers to ensure your child receives the necessary support ensuring your child is able to succeed and achieve to the very best of their individual ability.

If you are to attend please book a place using the MS Form link provided below.

Students are not required to attend this meeting, but are welcome to join the meeting should they wish to.

We look forward to welcoming all of our Parents and Carers and would encourage everyone to attend.
