

Hertfordshire Music Service and Haileybury Turnford host third annual Primary Singing Concert to celebrate music and community.

Haileybury Turnford and Hertfordshire Music Service proudly hosted the third annual Primary Singing Concert, a vibrant celebration of music and community spirit, bringing together young voices from across the south area of Hertfordshire.

The event, a collaboration between Haileybury Turnford and Hertfordshire Music Service (HMS), was designed to promote music education and showcase musical opportunities. It also aimed to strengthen the bonds between Haileybury Turnford and its local feeder schools: Brookland Junior, Burleigh Primary, Fairfields Primary and Longlands Primary.

This year's concert was not only a joyful live performance but also part of a national initiative from Sing Up. Students recorded a special performance of the World Sing Up Day song, *We Get Up Again, contributing to the HMS Sing Up Digital Choir. This recording, now available on YouTube <https://youtu.be/aOl4milOa-E>, connects children and young people worldwide in a shared celebration of singing and community.

“It was wonderful to welcome local primary schools and their families to Haileybury Turnford, and to witness the choirs performing with such confidence from across all schools” Robin Newman – Principal, Haileybury Turnford

The Primary Singing Concert is part of Haileybury Turnford's ongoing commitment to enriching the arts and fostering strong, supportive relationships with its partner schools. With the success of this year's event, the school looks forward to continuing this musical tradition for years to come.
